

Zero to Three identifies seven social emotional characteristics that are essential for school readiness. They are confidence, curiosity, intentionality, self-control, relatedness, capacity to communicate, and cooperativeness. Built through positive responsive relationships these create a foundation for learning. Zero to Three has recreated their website and include a School Readiness Interactive. Visit it at http://www.zerotothree.org/site/PageServer?pagename=key_language

An Overview of Social-Emotional Screening in Child Care Settings

Friday, September 21, 2007
9 a.m. to 3 p.m. (Breakfast at 8:30)
DSS Iberville Bldg Room 125
Baton Rouge

Who should attend:

1. Staff who will assist providers as they implement screening and planning
2. Staff who will be involved in training
Social-Emotional Screening: Planning and Implementation

Lunch will be provided. Please notify us of food allergies / preferences.

Lunch will be provided. Please RSVP Tara Zeringue no later than September 13, 2007 if you plan to attend.

Join the Mental Health Consultants from across the state!

This session will give you all the information you need to support child care providers as they begin the screening process. Drs. Angela Keyes and Sherry Heller will present the training to the Mental Health Consultants in anticipation of the training statewide beginning in October.

Social-Emotional Screening: Planning and Implementation

Following discussion at the Sept 6 meeting of DSS funded training projects; this session will not be created for the last quarter of 2007. Thanks for your input!